FRANCIACORTA BETTER THAN CHAMPAGNE??

sparkling wines and Italy? many will think of Asti, which is sweet, made from Moscato grapes in Piemonte, or Prosecco, which is dry, made primarily from Prosecco grapes in the Veneto.

Not many will think of Franciacorta & we hope this will change: Franciacorta is Italy's best sparkling wine!

Capable of scaling to considerable heights, it's the only Italian sparkling wine that can match Champagne in terms of elegance & complexity. Match, not imitate, this is an important distinction!

The production methods are similar but because the Franciacorta production area is several hundred miles south of Rheims, there is no problem with grape ripening; so Franciacorta tends to be a bit richer than Champagne of equivalent dryness & therefore more versatile at the table & can be pressed into service with richer dishes that would most likely overwhelm most Champagnes. This is just one of the many qualities of Italy's best sparkling wine!

A Better Choice Of Wine

Thanks to our innovative wine Station, you don't only get a much better choice of wines to try before you make your pick, you can also sample great quality products you wouldn't normally get the chance to have by the glass, all preserved at their very best under modified atmosphere.

As a member of The Italian Wine Sommelier Association and working in partnership with the Yorkshire Wine School (certified WSET educator), our wine experts personally choose the wines that feature in our vast selection, we import some directly knowing the producers personally and we relentlessly taste new wines in search for improvements....somebody has to do it 😊

We are happy to share our wine PASSION with you.
Salute!
